

Hello, My name is Kameiko Hostler, I'm a Youth Organizer at the California Native Vote Project (CNVP). CNVP is a unique non-profit organization in California, dedicated to engaging Native American communities across numerous counties. Our goal is to amplify their political influence through a holistic voter engagement approach. Additionally, we actively empower California Native youth, ages 12-24, by promoting cultural preservation, education, and community engagement. Through tailored programs, we help them navigate their unique challenges as Native students. We also facilitate vital connections with tribal resources and partners to support their growth and foster a strong sense of cultural pride and identity.

The California Native Vote Project is excited to invite you to a Virtual College Readiness Seminar designed specifically for Native American people who are looking to embark on their college journey. This event will be held on September 14th from 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM.

During this seminar, we will cover essential topics that can help you navigate the college admissions process and plan for a successful academic future. Here's a brief overview of what you can expect:

- College Application Process: Gain insights into how to prepare a strong college application that reflects your unique strengths and aspirations.
- Scholarships and Grants: Discover various scholarships and grant opportunities that can provide financial assistance to make college more accessible.
- FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid): Learn about the FAFSA application process and how it can help you secure financial aid for your higher education.
- Native American Programs: Find out about the specialized support and resources available for Native American students at California State Universities (CSU's), University of California (UC) institutions, California Community Colleges, and select California Private Colleges.

...and more!

Our goal is to empower you with the knowledge and resources needed to make informed decisions about your college journey. Whether you are a high school student exploring your options or a prospective college student seeking guidance, this seminar is tailored to your needs.

The event will take place online, making it accessible to participants from all over California. We would love to have you join us and encourage you to invite friends and peers who might also benefit from this seminar.

To reserve your spot, please register using the following link: <https://bit.ly/VCRS>

If you have any questions or would like to request specific information during the seminar, please don't hesitate to reach out to us. Your input is valuable, and we are here to support you in any way we can!

We look forward to seeing you on September 14th for this important and informative Virtual College Readiness Seminar. Together, we can take steps toward your educational goals.

Ts'ehdiyah (Thank You),

Kameiko Hostler (she/her)

Northern California Youth Organizer
Hoopa Valley Tribe

khostler@canativevote.org; (707) 502-4674

canativevote.org

